

Machinery Directive 2006/42/EC

Orgalime Proposal for the European Commission Guidelines

Article 13 (2)

What is unclear in the directive 2006/42/EC and has to be clarified?

“(2) The assembly instructions and the Declaration of Incorporation shall accompany the partly completed machinery until it is incorporated into the final machinery and shall then form part of the technical file for that machinery.”

Orgalime Proposal for the European Commission Guidelines:

Regarding the delivery of the Declaration of Incorporation and the assembly instructions in cases of more than one unit of identical Partly Completed Machinery (PCM) within one delivery or package unit, it is sufficient to deliver only one Declaration of Incorporation and one assembly instruction as far as the purchaser accepts this (this leaves it open for e.g. dealers to insist on one declaration/instruction per unit).

Disclaimer: The content of this fiche represents European industries' position on the subject. This position has been coordinated and agreed by European industrial associations collaborating on Orgalime's platform. This is therefore not an official European Commission guidance document.

Orgalime, the European Engineering Industries Association, speaks for 35 trade federations representing some 130,000 companies in the mechanical, electrical, electronic, metalworking & metal articles industries of 23 European countries. The industry employs some 10.9 million people in the EU and in 2007 accounted for some €1,813 billion of annual output. The industry not only represents more than one quarter of the output of manufactured products but also a third of the manufactured exports of the European Union.
